

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. If you are new to the Cathedral and wish to make this your regular place of worship, please ask a Steward or one of the Clergy for a Welcome Card. Please do join us for coffee after the service. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table in the porch or on our website.

TODAY

Visiting Choir We are grateful to The Wheatsheaf Consort who are singing our choral services this weekend.

Martin & Phoebe Christie Following this morning's Eucharist, while we have coffee, all are welcome to join a small informal celebration with cakes as a mark of appreciation for the volunteer stewarding work undertaken by the Christies over the years.

THIS WEEK

No Man's Land No Man's Land offers rarely-seen female perspectives on the First World War, featuring images taken by women who worked as nurses, ambulance drivers, and official photographers, as well as contemporary artists directly inspired by the conflict. Commemorating the First World War Centenary, No Man's Land features photographs by three women of the epoch, alongside three women making work a century later. The exhibition runs until 1 July. Admission is free.

Bible Study On Tuesday 17 April, between 10.00am and 12noon, all are welcome to a Bible Study at 47 Avon Way BS9 1SL looking at the Easter teaching given by the Dean.

Lunchtime Recital Also on Tuesday 17 April at 1.15pm, the Lunchtime Recital series returns with an organ recital by Alexander Palotai, Senior Organ Scholar at Worcester College, Oxford. Previously, Alex was an Organ Scholar here. Admission is free, and all are welcome.

Ecclesiastical Fashion Show – Friends of Bristol Cathedral Saturday 21 April at 2.00pm in the Chapter House – This is a one-off opportunity to see close at hand some of our beautiful vestments and altar frontals, many of which are priceless. There will be a talk about Elizabeth Fry (the person who made many of the vestments) and the work the sewing group does to conserve and restore these articles. The event will include tea and cakes and will end with Choral Evensong at 3.30pm. Tickets are selling fast! They are £10.00 for members of the Friends and £12.00 for non-members, and are available from Wendy Pradalie by telephone: 0117 946 8184 or email: wendy.pradalie@bristol-cathedral.co.uk

Chorister Cake Sales On Sunday 22 April and 29 April, there will be an opportunity to buy delicious home-made cakes from the choristers after the Cathedral Eucharist. All proceeds from the sales will go towards the forthcoming Choir Tour to Belgium and the Netherlands.

Community Meeting The next meeting will follow the Cathedral Eucharist on Sunday 22 April. Please note this in your diary.

BEYOND

Community Lunch The next Community Lunch will be held at 12noon on Sunday 29 April. Tickets (£6.00 per person) can be obtained from Martin Christie after the Cathedral Eucharist.

A Musical Marriage On the day of the Royal Wedding, Saturday 19 May, at 7.30pm, you are invited to a celebratory concert given by the Cathedral Choir, featuring music that will have been sung at the Royal Wedding earlier that day, and also including Tippett's Five Spirituals, and Barber's famous Agnus Dei. Tickets are £10 (£5 children), and are available from opus13.co.uk, 0117 923 0164.

J'Accuse Advance tickets are on sale for a special screening of Abel Gance's silent World War I classic silent film, J'Accuse (1919), at 6.00pm on Thursday 1 November, accompanied live on the organ by Dr David Bednall. This screening forms part of the Cathedral's WWI centenary commemorations. Tickets are available from getawriggleon.com or opus13.co.uk (0117 923 0164). For more info, visit the cathedral website.

GENERAL

Pilgrimage Canon Nicola will be co-leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land from 12-19 November, 2018. If you'd like to visit the holy sites, this could be your chance! We'll be travelling by scheduled flights, staying at excellent hotels in Jerusalem and by the Sea of Galilee and the price is all inclusive – there are literally no hidden extras! Please speak to Canon Nicola. 0117 946 8183, or canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

Coming Soon: Hymnathon – the Hunt for Bristol's Favourite Hymn Soon we will be asking you what your favourite hymns are, from any point in the church's year. The Hymnathon will be raising funds for the forthcoming choir tour, and you can cast your vote for your favourite hymns soon. Watch this space for more details!
