

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. If you are new to the Cathedral and wish to make this your regular place of worship, please ask a Steward or one of the Clergy for a Welcome Card. Please do join us for coffee after the service. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table in the porch or on our website.

TODAY

10k Run Good luck to all those running the Bristol 10k Run this morning!

THIS WEEK

Bible Study On Tuesday 15 May at 10.00am, there is a Bible Study for those who wish to attend, at Rita Banfield's house, 47 Avon Way.

Lunchtime Recital On Tuesday 15 May at 1.15pm, the Lunchtime Recital series continues with a recital by Ailsa Campbell. Ailsa is the Alto Choral Scholar in the Cathedral Choir. Admission is free, and all are welcome.

Who is Bristol for? At 6.30pm on Wednesday 16 May, Anna Minton, author of Big Capital: Who is London for? Leads a panel discussion about her ideas in relation to Bristol. For more information, visit bristol-cathedral.co.uk/whats-on/who-is-bristol-for.

A Musical Marriage On the day of the Royal Wedding, Saturday 19 May, at 7.30pm, you are invited to a celebratory concert given by the Cathedral Choir, featuring music that will have been sung at the Royal Wedding earlier that day, and also including Tippett's Five Spirituals, and Barber's famous Agnus Dei. Tickets are £10 (£5 children), and are available from opus13.co.uk, 0117 923 0164.

BEYOND

Ordinands Next Sunday, we will bid farewell to three of our Ordinands, Alison Walker, Bob Latham, and Rob Denton, as they prepare for ordination. There will be an opportunity to say goodbye after the morning service.

Crafty Cathedral On Wednesday 30 May, between 10.00am and 12noon, come to the cathedral for a free drop-in craft morning for all ages as we explore Wonderful Women. Then, on Wednesday 30 May, between 2.00pm and 3.30pm, "Let's find out about Pentecost", a free family fun session based on Pentecost, with stories and craft for all ages.

Undivided: 100 Years of Remembering and Forgetting It is one hundred years since the end of the 'war to end all wars'. On Tuesdays in June, at 6.30pm in the Chapter House, to mark this historic milestone, our undivided series will explore the contested field of memory and remembrance. For more details or to book tickets, please see the cathedral website.

GENERAL

Hymnathon – the Hunt for Bristol's Favourite Hymn Voting forms are now available for the Hymnathon. If you wish to take part, you simply need to fill in your five favourite hymns, and return the form – together with a minimum donation of £5 – to any chorister, or pop it in to the Cathedral Gatehouse. Why not look through your hymn book for some inspiration! On Sunday 10 June, between 1.30 and 2.30pm, the top 20 hymns will be sung, in reverse order, counting down to the number one hymn! So: what is your favourite hymn?

Pilgrimage Canon Nicola will be co-leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land from 12-19 November, 2018. If you'd like to visit the holy sites, this could be your chance! We'll be travelling by scheduled flights, staying at excellent hotels in Jerusalem and by the Sea of Galilee and the price is all inclusive – there are literally no hidden extras! Please speak to Canon Nicola. 01 17 946 8183, or canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.
