

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol
Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. If you are new to the Cathedral and wish to make this your regular place of worship, please ask a Steward or one of the Clergy for a Welcome Card. Please do join us for coffee after the service. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table in the porch or on our website.

TODAY

Hymnathon – the Hunt for Bristol's Favourite Hymn The results are in! This afternoon between 1.00 and 2.00pm, the top 20 hymns will be sung, in reverse order, counting down to the number one hymn!

Friends AGM At 2.00pm this afternoon, the Annual General Meeting of the Friends of Bristol Cathedral takes place in the Chapter House.

THIS WEEK

Lunchtime Recital On Tuesday 12 June, at 1.15pm, Matthew Clark, Rob Waters, and David Bednall will give a recital entitled "War & Peace". Admission is free and all are welcome.

Undivided: 100 Years of Remembering and Forgetting It is one hundred years since the end of the 'war to end all wars'. The second talk is on Tuesday 12 June, in which the Revd Dr James Woodward speaks on The Dissolving Self? Dementia, personhood, and human identity. Revd Woodward is the Principal of Sarum College. For more details or to book tickets, please see the cathedral website.

Community Lunch The next community lunch will be on Sunday 24 June, at 12noon, in the Cathedral Café. Tickets are £6 a head, and are available from Rita Banfield at coffee.

BEYOND

Bible Study The next bible study will be at 10.00am on Tuesday 17 July, at Rita Banfield's house, 47 Avon Way.

Friends Theatre Visit On Tuesday 17 July at 7.30pm, the Friends will be attending The Play that goes Wrong, at the Bristol Hippodrome. Tickets in the stalls are £26, which is a considerable reduction on the usual price. For more information or to buy a ticket, please contact Wendy Pradalie on 0117 946 8184, or wendy.pradalie@bristol-cathedral.co.uk. The deadline for buying tickets is Friday 15 June, and numbers are limited to 28 tickets, so early application is advised.

GENERAL

Visiting Choir Teas Summer is upon us and that means visiting choirs. Once again this is your opportunity to outdo one another in zeal for providing hospitality to our visiting choirs. The list of dates is now available over coffee in the Chapter House. Sign up now while spaces for this important ministry still last. If you would like more information please speak to a Verger.

Bishop of Bristol Elected We are delighted that the Very Revd Vivienne Faull, Dean of York, has been elected as the 57th Bishop of Bristol. She will be consecrated at St Paul's, London, in July, and ordained Bishop here in the autumn.
