

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. Please do also join us for coffee after the service.

This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table, in the porch or on our website.

New to the cathedral? If you are new to the cathedral and wish to make this your regular place of worship, we would like to invite you to join us for welcome drinks on Thursday 27 September at 6.00pm. Please be in touch with Canon Nicola Stanley, canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

News & Notes Did you know you could get this news sheet emailed to you every week? If you would like to be added to the mailing list, please email tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

Community Roll and Planned Giving If you would like to find out more about joining the Cathedral's Community Roll, or would like to contribute financially to the Cathedral's ministry and mission through Planned Giving, please speak to Canon Nicola and ask for a form to complete or email canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

TODAY

Cathedral Consort Today the Cathedral Consort returns after the Summer Break. New members of the Consort will be admitted at the 10.00am Eucharist, and medals will be given to the Heads of Consort.

Social Justice Group The Social Justice Group meeting is today. Come and hear the plans for the year ahead. Meet over coffee after the Eucharist and we will convene to the Old Library for an 11.30am start and a 1.00pm finish. All welcome!

THIS WEEK

Licensing of Lay Ministers On Saturday 22 September the Bishop of Swindon will admit and licence new Lay Ministers, and welcome existing Lay Ministers into the Diocese. We keep them in our prayers.

Half Marathon The Bristol Half Marathon will take place next Sunday 23 September. Permits and details of road closures are available from the vergers. Please note that permits do not guarantee a parking space.

BEYOND

Hospitality to refugees and asylum seekers. On September 24, the Social Justice Group will be offering hospitality to a small group of refugees and asylum seekers we have got to know. Please pray for this gathering that it may be a fruitful beginning. For more details speak to Mary Travis or Canon Martin.

Community Meeting – Advance Notice The next Community Meeting will take place on Sunday 30 September following the Cathedral Eucharist. All are invited to attend.

The Fitzhardinge Dinner The Nave Dinner will take place on Thursday 4 October, and in this centenary year of World War I, the theme will be Remembrance. Tickets are available from Wendy Pradalie at wendy.pradalie@bristol-cathedral.co.uk, or tel: 0117 946 8184. Price £95 per ticket, or £900 for a table of ten.

Harvest Lunch The community lunch in October will be on Harvest Sunday, 7 October. Tickets are £7, and can be purchased at coffee time from Andrea Caish or from Rita Banfield from next week.

J'Accuse Tickets are on sale for a special Remembrance screening of Abel Gance's silent World War I classic silent film, J'Accuse (1919), at 6.00pm on Thursday 1 November, accompanied live on the organ by Dr David Bednall. This screening forms part of the Cathedral's WWI centenary commemorations. Tickets are available from getawriggleon.com or opus13.co.uk (0117 923 0164). For more info, visit the cathedral website.

GENERAL

At the Going Down of the Sun A new exhibition which runs until 18 November, At the Going Down of the Sun is the culmination of a four-year photographic project by Bristol artist Marko Dutka commemorating the centenary of the First World War. This exhibition will mark the lives of people who lost their lives in conflicts over the last 104 years and who are remembered at sites in the Bristol and Bath region. Free admission.

Bishop of Bristol The Rt Revd Vivienne Faull became our Bishop at the end of June and is already involved in the life of the diocese. She will be formally welcomed and enthroned in October. Please pray for her as she takes on the significant responsibility of a diocesan bishop.
