

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. Please do also join us for coffee after the service. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table, in the porch or on our website.

News & Notes Did you know you could get this news sheet emailed to you every week? If you would like to be added to the mailing list, please email tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

Community Roll and Planned Giving If you would like to find out more about joining the Cathedral's Community Roll, or would like to contribute financially to the Cathedral's ministry and mission through Planned Giving, please speak to Canon Nicola and ask for a form to complete or email canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk. Please note Clive Bridgman is now administering the scheme.

BEYOND

J'Accuse Tickets are on sale for a special Remembrance screening of Abel Gance's silent World War I classic silent film, J'Accuse (1919), at 6.00pm on Thursday 1 November, accompanied live on the organ by Dr David Bednall. This screening forms part of the Cathedral's WWI centenary commemorations. Tickets are available from getawriggleon.com or opus13.co.uk (0117 923 0164). For more info, visit the cathedral website.

GENERAL

Harvest Festival As part of our harvest offering, we donate food collected at the Harvest Eucharist. If you have any tinned or dried goods (non-perishable) you can spare, please give them to a steward next Sunday, 7 October, so they can be placed on the altar platform. Toiletries are also greatly appreciated.

Volunteers To make sure that we can look after our volunteers while in the Cathedral we ask that when you arrive you now check in via our signing in sheet that is held in the Café. We would be grateful if you could help us with this. We are grateful for the continued help and support that all our volunteers provide for the cathedral.

At the Going Down of the Sun A new exhibition which runs until 18 November, At the Going Down of the Sun is the culmination of a four-year photographic project by Bristol artist Marko Dutka commemorating the centenary of the First World War. This exhibition will mark the lives of people who lost their lives in conflicts over the last 104 years and who are remembered at sites in the Bristol and Bath region. Free admission.

Bishop of Bristol The Rt Revd Vivienne Faull became our Bishop at the end of June and is already involved in the life of the diocese. She will be formally welcomed and enthroned in October. Please pray for her as she takes on the significant responsibility of a diocesan bishop.

Pilgrimage There are unexpectedly two spare spaces on the pilgrimage Canon Nicola will be leading to the Holy Land from November 12-19. If you are interested please let Canon Nicola know by tomorrow.canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk
