

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table, in the porch or on our website. Please join us in the Chapter House for coffee after the service.

TODAY

BCP Communion, Advent Tea Members of our regular Sunday 8.00am BCP Communion congregation are hosting an Advent Tea at 3.00pm today. In the past this has been a wonderful opportunity to share the beginning of the Christmas season together. Members of other congregations are most welcome to join us for tea at this time. Please could all wishing to attend let Sallie Blanks Nash know if you are able to come. sallieblanks@aol.com or 07947 157204.

Community Lunch The lunch is today at 12noon. Tickets £7. Any remaining tickets will be announced at the start of the 10.00am Eucharist.

Advent Procession This evening join us at 6.00pm for a service of music and readings that moves from darkness to light, and marks the start of the Advent season. All are welcome for this special candlelit service.

COMING UP

Friends Advent drinks and canapés The Friends are hosting Advent drinks on Sunday 9 December from 12noon to 2.30pm, at 4 West Mall, Clifton by kind invitation of Trisha Morris. If you would like to join the Friends, visit bristol-cathedral.co.uk/support-us/friends-of-bristol-cathedral.

Carols by Candlelight Tickets for this highlight of the festive season are on sale. With music from the Cathedral Choir, readings from John Telfer, from BBC Radio 4's The Archers, and an opportunity for the audience to join in with some festive favourites, this concert is not to be missed. 7.30pm on Friday 14 December and Saturday 15 December. Tickets from £15, from Opus13.co.uk, 0117 923 0164.

Carol Services at the Cathedral We will be holding many carol services this year, aimed at a range of audiences. Whether you want something brief, significant, light, grand, something for adults, or something for babies, you'll find what you're looking for in our December services. See the Cathedral website for full details.

GENERAL

Cycles of Prayer The Diocesan Cycle of Prayer has had a complete overhaul and the churches, people, or institutions listed will be prayed for at Evensong or Evening Prayer on the relevant date in question. The whole week is listed below, detailed by day for ease of use.

2019 Calendars Wall calendars for next year are available to purchase in the cathedral shop for £5. They have been photographed and compiled by Canon Debbie Dewes.

Night Shelter Volunteers In February and March next year, we will be hosting the Bristol Churches Winter Night Shelter for six Monday nights. We will have up to 12 guests, referred to us by St Mungo's. They will sleep in the Chapter House, receive an evening meal on arrival and breakfast prior to departure. If you are interested in volunteering or helping in some other way, please visit bcwns.org. All volunteers are required to attend training, and can specify later that it is the Cathedral where you wish to volunteer. To find out more, please speak to Canon Martin, Sam Rylands, or other members of the community who volunteered last year.

Pilgrimages Canon Nicola will be leading pilgrimages in 2019 & 2020: 8-17 October 2019 a pilgrimage to see the painted monasteries of Romania, the Moldavian monasteries, and Transylvania. 18-25 September 2020, a once in a lifetime opportunity to travel to Austria and Oberammergau to see the Passion Play which has been performed every 10 years since 1634. For further information on either of these pilgrimages, please see the brochures on the literature table or speak to Canon Nicola (canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk).

Walsingham From 2-6 September 2019, Canon Nicola will be taking a group of people to the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham. If you are interested in joining them, please speak to Canon Nicola. canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk 0117 946 8183
