

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. This week's services can be found on the Music List on the literature table, in the porch or on our website. Please join us in the Chapter House for coffee after the service.

TODAY

Canon Chancellor Yesterday the Revd Canon Michael Roden was instituted and installed as Canon Chancellor. This morning he preaches his first sermon in the cathedral. Please do take the opportunity to chat to him over coffee.

THIS WEEK

Anchor Road Roadworks Starting tomorrow, and running until May, there will be some roadworks on Anchor Rd. Traffic coming from the centre will not be able to turn right into College Square, but instead will need to turn at the Jacobs Wells Road roundabout. Leaving College Square is unaffected. Congestion will be increased during rush hours. Please be aware and leave additional time for your journey.

Migs Williamson A service of thanksgiving for the life of Migs Williamson will take place in the Cathedral tomorrow, Monday 14 January at 2.00pm.

Lunchtime Recital On Tuesday 15 January, at 1.15pm, the 2019 recital series continues with a free recital from Jenna Brown, soprano, and David Bednall, piano.

Slapstick at the Cathedral On Wednesday 16 January the Slapstick Festival, held annually in January celebrating silent comedy, is coming to the cathedral, with a screening of Harold Lloyd's For Heaven's Sake! (1928). Tickets are available from watershed.co.uk.

COMING UP

Ballet of the Nations On Thursday 24 January at 7.00pm, Bristol-based dance company Impermanence are screening their first short-feature film, The Ballet of the Nations, followed by a panel discussion. Actor Billy Zane narrates this 50-minute arthouse film in which war is imagined as a diabolical dance choreographed by Satan and Ballet Master Death. Tickets available from brownpapertickets.com/event/3754463.

Candlemas On Saturday 2 February, celebrate the Presentation of Christ in the Temple, commonly called Candlemas, with a candlelit Eucharist at 6.00pm. Candlemas is formally the end of the Christmas period.
