

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet, or at b.link/sundayeucharist.

TODAY

Licensing of Lay Ministers

We keep in our prayers all those who were licensed as lay ministers yesterday.

Worship in the Cathedral

If you would like to attend any of the Sunday services next week, please sign up via Eventbrite here: tinyurl.com/cathedralbooking. There is no need to print off your ticket.

If you have booked to attend any of the Sunday services, and find you are unable to attend, please cancel your booking on Eventbrite, as we always have a waiting list. Thank you.

For your visit:

- Please do not attend if you exhibit symptoms of Covid-19 or feel unwell
- Please continue to follow government guidance regarding the coronavirus
- Please do not book more than six tickets, to maintain the “rule of six”
- Wearing face-coverings is mandatory in places of worship, unless you are exempt, and when receiving Communion.
- As you leave the Cathedral please remember not to gather in groups of more than six.

Worship Online

Morning Prayer daily at 9.30am, and the Cathedral Eucharist on Sundays at 10.00am on Facebook, YouTube and Twitter.

COMING UP

The Revd Dr Cathy Okoronkwo Next Sunday, 25 October, at 3.30pm Evensong, the Bishop of Bristol’s Advisor on Racial Justice will preach. This bookends the workshop by Ben Lindsay at the start of October to mark Black History Month.

Visiting Choir We’re delighted that next Friday 23 October and Sunday 25 October the Oriana Singers will be singing our choral services.

Cathedral Retreat in Daily Life: 25 October to 22 November – Encountering Love and Freedom: a four-week retreat made in the midst of daily life introducing Ignatian spirituality and prayer. Making this kind of retreat involves setting aside a particular time for prayer during the course of everyday life over a given time period. Due to rising rates of Covid-19 the five consecutive Sunday group meetings will now be on line as follows: 25 October 5-6pm, 1 and 8 November 12noon-1pm, 15 and 22 November 5-6pm. Prayer suggestions and material for use during the week will be provided. If you are interested in participating in this retreat, or would like more information, please email or write to the Revd Minty Hull. Email: spirituality@bristol-cathedral.co.uk or write to Minty c/o the Cathedral.

If you would like to receive this notice sheet by email each week, please email tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

All Souls' Requiem On Sunday 1 November at 6.00pm, we are celebrating a Requiem Mass for All Souls, sung by the Melgás Consort. This is an opportunity to remember all those who we have known and loved, but who are no longer with us. Booking for the service will be in the usual way, via our Eventbrite page: tinyurl.com/cathedralbooking (bookable from the preceding Sunday).

The Return of the Choristers We are delighted that, after half-term, our choristers will be able to return to singing services, having spent much of the term so far rehearsing in year group bubbles. Their first service back will be a Requiem for Remembrance at 6.00pm on Sunday 8 November, when the choir will sing Fauré's Requiem (seats can be reserved in the usual way from Sunday 1 November). Sunday 15 November will see valedictions in the morning for those choristers who would have left in July, and at Evensong the Admission of new choristers and the giving of medals.

GENERAL

Social Justice Group Charity Work The Social Justice Group is fundraising for two Bristol-based charities this autumn/winter: Sixty One (sixty-one.org), which produce gift bags for people in prison at Christmas, and 1625 Independent People (1625ip.co.uk) who work to prevent young people becoming homeless. Can you help us? We have set a target of £1,000 to be split between the two charities. It is a hard time for the charitable sector – and indeed many of the constituencies that they support – given the impact of Covid-19, so please help if you can. The SJG will help assemble the gift bags in November and they are always hugely appreciated by recipients. Please put your donation in an envelope and hand to one of the Canons or make a bank transfer to Bristol Cathedral (Account number: 00011355. Sort code: 56-00-05), using the reference 'SJG fundraising'.

Support your Cathedral If you would like to support the Cathedral financially, particularly during these difficult times, there is a new donate button on our website. To donate, visit here: tinyurl.com/cathedraldonate. Thank you.
