

EASTERN LADY CHAPEL

The scene of an altercation between Henry VIII and Thomas Cromwell.

ELDER LADY CHAPEL

The scene of the funeral of Catherine of Aragon.

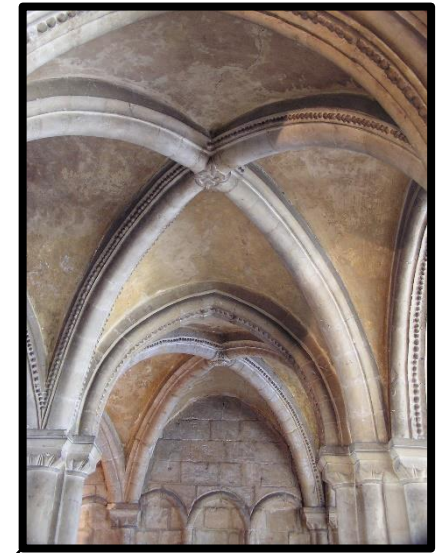

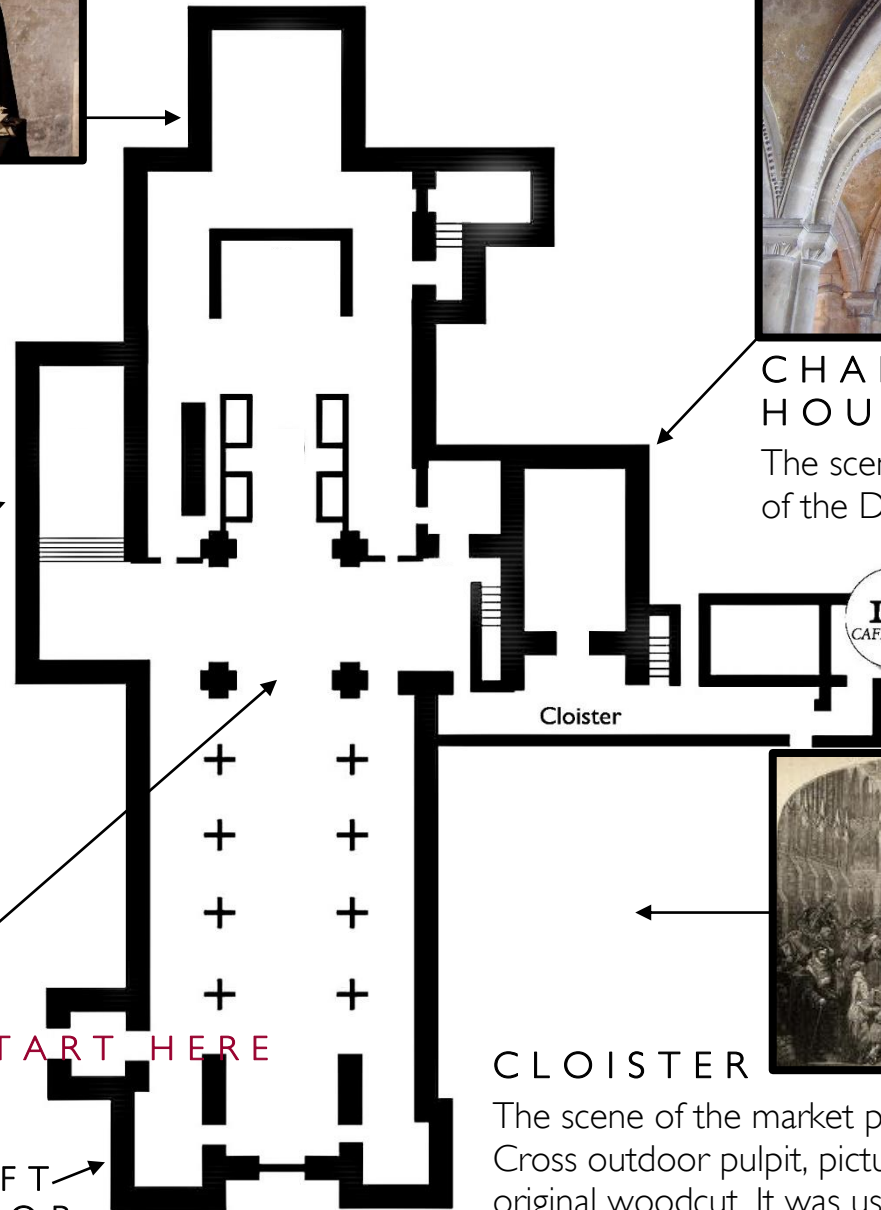

THE NAVE AND CROSSING

The scene of the Coronation of Anne Boleyn.

GIFT SHOP

START HERE

CHAPTER HOUSE

The scene of the residence of the Duke of Norfolk.

Cloister

CLOISTER

The scene of the market place and St Paul's Cross outdoor pulpit, pictured here in an original woodcut. It was used for public sermons by preachers like Bishop Latimer. The king would frequently attend.

WOLF HALL

Wolf Hall is an historical drama based on the Booker award-winning novels of Hilary Mantel, chronicling the rise of Thomas Cromwell, the son of a humble blacksmith who became King Henry VIII's chief minister, as he navigated the corridors of power in the Tudor court.

Find out more by visiting:

bbc.co.uk/programmes/p02gfy02

BRISTOL CATHEDRAL

Bristol Cathedral is open to the public 365 days a year.

Originally an Augustinian Abbey, the Cathedral was founded in 1542 by Henry VIII. Find out more by picking up a free Cathedral guide leaflet.

 @BristolCathedra

 /BristolCathedral

bristol-cathedral.co.uk

THE WOLF HALL TRAIL

Major scenes in the BBC drama Wolf Hall were filmed in Bristol Cathedral.

Follow the trail inside to see the locations used.