Fifth Sunday of Easter

Sunday 2 May, 2021

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. This week's services can be found on the Music List on our website.

TODAY

Cathedral Consort This morning we are delighted to welcome back the Consort. Congratulations to Miriam and Jacob who will be admitted as Head Girl and Boy. This marks only the second service the Consort has sung since before the first lockdown in early 2020.

THIS WEEK

Broadcast services We are continuing to broadcast Morning Prayer at 8.00am, daily, 5.15pm Choral Evensong on Friday, and the Eucharist on Sundays. Services are broadcast via www.facebook.com/bristolcathedral and www.youtube.com/bristolcathedralvideo.

Services in the building The Cathedral is open for the 12.30pm Eucharist (not broadcast) from Tuesday to Saturday. There is no need to book, but your contact details will be taken on arrival.

Seats at Choral Evensong on Friday (5.15pm), and our Sunday services – 8.00am BCP Holy Communion, 10.00am Cathedral Eucharist, and 3.30pm Choral Evensong – can be booked in the week beforehand, by visiting our Eventbrite page: www.tinyurl.com/cathedralbooking.

COMING UP

Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition 2021 We are pleased to announce that, from Wednesday 5 May, the inaugural Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition will be open for entries. The theme is "Poetry and Faith: Conversations on Diversity", and there are three age categories 16-25, 26-65, 66+. Prizes include performing at a Bristol Cathedral Festival, having the poem published on the Bristol Cathedral website, and a workshop opportunity. The deadline for entries is Wednesday 30 June at 5.00pm. For further information, visit our website.

Eucharist with Prayers for the City On Thursday 6 May our regular lunchtime Eucharist at 12.30pm will include Prayers for the City. As we are expecting people from other city churches to attend as well, you may like to book ahead via Eventbrite in the usual way.

Social Justice Group The next meeting is on Sunday 9 May at 11.45am via Zoom when our guest speaker will be The Revd Dr Catherine Okoronkwo. Cathy is the Bishop's Advisor on Racial Justice and the Vicar of All Saints and St Barnabas, Swindon. All are very welcome. The Zoom code will be sent to those in the group's mailing list; please e-mail eccairncross@gmail.com if you would like to attend and wouldn't expect to receive the code.

Filming at the Cathedral We are delighted to be welcoming film crews back to the Cathedral for more period drama filming. Please note that the Cloister Car Park will not be available on weekdays from 6-14 May. Please also note that the Cathedral will be closed to the public on Tuesday 11 May, Wednesday 12 May, and Thursday 13 May until the evening Eucharist, and there will be no public lunchtime Eucharist on those days.

Ascension Day On Thursday 13 May, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension with a Choral Eucharist at 6.00pm, sung by the Cathedral Consort. Seats are bookable on Eventbrite in the usual way.

Inhabit the Cathedral – experience the world of a medieval child Have you ever wondered what life was like hundreds of years ago? In June, visit Bristol Cathedral and live that life in a brand new trail for children. Wear a monk's habit, make herbs, hear music, learn calligraphy, find sheep, make some dough, candles, and more. Booking is £20 per group of up to five people. The trail will last approximately one hour, and will run in the late afternoons from Monday 21 June to Tuesday 29 June. For more information visit the Cathedral website.

GENERAL

Reading Rota As we return to more regular Sunday services, we are hoping to reactivate the readers' rota. We will be writing to all those who have previously been on the readers' rota – or who have read recently, during the pandemic – to ask if you would like to continue. If you have not previously been a part of this rota, but would like to join, please email Tim Popple (tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk).
