Seventh Sunday of Easter

Sunday 16 May, 2021

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. This week's services can be found on the Music List on our website.

TODAY

Installation of Canons This afternoon at 3.30pm, Choral Evensong will include the Installation of Elizabeth Cairncross and Naomi Miller as Lay Canons and members of the Cathedral Chapter. All are welcome, and seats at the service can be booked via Eventbrite in the usual way.

THIS WEEK

Broadcast services We are continuing to broadcast Morning Prayer at 8.00am, daily, 5.15pm Choral Evensong on Friday, and the Eucharist on Sundays. Services are broadcast via www.facebook.com/bristolcathedral and www.youtube.com/bristolcathedralvideo.

Services in the building The Cathedral is open for the 12.30pm Eucharist (not broadcast) from Tuesday to Saturday. There is no need to book, but your contact details will be taken on arrival.

Seats at Choral Evensong on Friday (5.15pm), and our Sunday services – 8.00am BCP Holy Communion, 10.00am Cathedral Eucharist, and 3.30pm Choral Evensong – can be booked in the week beforehand, by visiting our Eventbrite page: www.tinyurl.com/cathedralbooking.

Nine Days of Prayer For the nine days between Ascension Day and Pentecost, we have produced a prayer card. Copies are available to pick up in the Cathedral, or available digitally on our website (bristol-cathedral.co.uk/faith-worship/quiet-reflection-prayer). This year's card focuses on a prayer of St Augustine.

COMING UP

Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition 2021 We are pleased to announce that the inaugural Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition is now open for entries. The theme is "Poetry and Faith: Conversations on Diversity", and there are three age categories 16-25, 26-65, 66+. Prizes include performing at a Bristol Cathedral Festival, having the poem published on the Bristol Cathedral website, and a workshop opportunity. The deadline for entries is Wednesday 30 June at 5.00pm. For further information, visit our website.

Inhabit the Cathedral – experience the world of a medieval child Have you ever wondered what life was like hundreds of years ago? In June, visit Bristol Cathedral and live that life in a brand new trail for children. Wear a monk’s habit, make herbs, hear music, learn calligraphy, find sheep, make some dough, candles, and more. Booking is £20 per group of up to five people. The trail will last approximately one hour, and will run in the late afternoons from Monday 21 June to Tuesday 29 June. For more information visit the Cathedral website.

Museum of the Moon From 11-30 August 2021, Luke Jerram’s Museum of the Moon will be displayed in the Cathedral. This artwork was originally planned for August 2020, but was postponed owing to the pandemic. We are delighted to be bringing it to the Cathedral, and a curated programme of events, run in collaboration with other Bristol institutions, including concerts, recitals, and children’s craft events, will be offered, and will be bookable from late June.

GENERAL

Sound System We are increasingly aware that our elderly sound system and hearing loop are not functioning as they ought – please accept our apologies and be assured that we are considering how best to resolve this problem.

Reading Rota As we return to more regular Sunday services, we are hoping to reactivate the readers’ rota. We will be writing to all those who have previously been on the readers’ rota – or who have read recently, during the pandemic – to ask if you would like to continue. If you have not previously been a part of this rota, but would like to join, please email Tim Pople (tim.pople@bristol-cathedral.co.uk).
