Sixth Sunday after Trinity

Welcome to the Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol

Whether you are a regular worshipper, or this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, you are most welcome. The service can be followed in the main booklet. This week's services can be found on the Music List on our website.

TODAY

The Cathedral Choir Owing to a number of positive tests for Covid-19 in the Cathedral Choir, we took the difficult decision to end the Cathedral Choir term. Our grateful thanks to those who stepped in and sang at the Ordination services last weekend after much of the back row had to self-isolate. This morning's service is sung by a group comprising those members of the back row not still self-isolating and a number of deputy singers. We are grateful to them for stepping in at short notice. The Valedictions which were due to have taken place this morning will now be incorporated into a service at the start of next term. We wish our choir well for the summer.

Social Justice Group The Social Justice Group meet again this morning at 11.45am. We will be joined by Chrstine and Pete Winmill of Count Everyone In, who will speak about working with Churches and Adults with Learning Disabilities. The Zoom link will be sent again to the group – if you don't receive the emails and would like to for this meeting, email eccairncross@gmail.com.

THE MUSEUM OF THE MOON

Events Tickets are now on sale for the exciting and jam-packed programme of events supporting the Museum of the Moon – Luke Jerram’s scale model of the moon which will hang from the crossing of the Cathedral from 12-30 August.

The events include model-making with Wallace & Gromit; science talks for children, families, and grown-ups; folk music with Lady Nade; a concert from the Fitzhardinge Consort; a performance from Opera in a Box of Haydn’s light opera Life on the Moon; beer & cheese evenings with Left Handed Giant and The Bristol Cheesemonger, and much, much more... All the information is at bristol-cathedral.co.uk/moon.

Booking Booking for all events is highly recommended, as this is likely to be a very popular festival.

Volunteering If you would like to volunteer to help with the Moon exhibit, please visit <https://bristol-cathedral.co.uk/about-us/vacancies/welcomer/> or email volunteer@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

THIS WEEK

Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition 2021 The inaugural Bristol Cathedral Poetry Competition remains open for entries. The theme is “Poetry and Faith: Conversations on Diversity”, and there are three age categories 16-25, 26-65, 66+. Prizes include performing at a Bristol Cathedral Festival, having the poem published on the Bristol Cathedral website, and a workshop opportunity. The deadline for entries has been extended to Wednesday 14 July at 5.00pm. For further information, visit our website.

NEXT WEEK

Morning Prayer From tomorrow, Monday 12 July, Morning Prayer will return to the traditional time of 8.30am both in the building and broadcast online.

LOOKING AHEAD

Friends of Bristol Cathedral: Cream Tea & Bubbles An opportunity to enjoy a Cornish cream tea with a glass of something fizzy in the company of other Friends. Please join us on Thursday 29 July 3.30pm to 5.30pm at the home of Mary & Roger Opie in the shadow of Clifton Suspension Bridge. For further details and to book tickets please email friends@bristol-cathedral.co.uk. Booking for this event is essential as numbers are limited. Tickets £10.

Spiritual Surgeries This August we will once again be running our 'spiritual surgeries'. These 1:1 meetings with a member of the clergy offer the opportunity to have a confidential half hour discussion about faith, life, the universe...or anything else! Appointments will be arranged at mutually convenient times. If you would like to sign up or find out more please contact Canon Nicola, on canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk or leave a message on 0117 946 8183. Appointments will run throughout August but the closing date for signing up is Sunday 1 August.

GENERAL

Seating We are delighted that the new chairs have been delivered and set out in the nave. In order to maintain spatial distancing, please only sit in a row marked with a green tick. Rows which have been marked with a red X are to remain vacant. If you are unsure, please speak to a Verger.

Communion Now the nave is fully chaired Communion will be distributed from stations at both ends of the Cathedral, rather than remaining in your seats. Please follow directions for when to safely leave your place, and maintain spatial distancing at all times and keep your face-covering on until you have received the host into your hand and moved away from the priest.
