19th Sunday after Trinity

WELCOME TO BRISTOL CATHEDRAL

Whether this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, or whether you are a regular worshipper here, you are most welcome.

If you would prefer to remain spatially distanced and masked, please make your way to the North Transept, where a space has been retained. A steward or welcomer can help you find this area if you are unsure where to go.

If you are new to the Cathedral, please do say hello over a cup of coffee after the service.

The 10.00am Eucharist service can be followed in the green booklet; this week's readings, hymn numbers, and propers (other prayers) can be found in the Sunday Sheet; and the hymns can be found in the hymn book.

TODAY

INSTALLATION OF HONORARY CANONS This afternoon at 3,30pm, Choral Evensong will include the installation of The Revd Derek Maddox, Simon Pugh-Jones, and The Revd Sally Wheeler as Honorary Canons.

THIS WEEK

This week's services can be found on the Services + Music List on our website, and our Eucharist is broadcast on Facebook and YouTube.

CATHEDRAL CLOSURE The Cathedral will be closed for general visiting on Monday 11, Tuesday 12, and Wednesday 13 October, owing to an event taking place in the building. We will remain open for the Eucharist and Evening Prayer only, held in our Sub Croft chapel, and Evensong on Monday and Tuesday will become Evening Prayer. Morning Prayer and Evensong on Wednesday will take place as usual.

CATHEDRAL POETRY FESTIVAL On Thursday 14 October, 4.30pm to 6.00pm, come and hear the poems from the winners of our first Poetry & Faith Competition, as they recite their poems for the first time. This inaugural festival will be compered by Rob Short, educator, global performer, and a pupil of Maya Angelou and Cornel West. The event will include performances from Miles Chambers, Dr Edson Burton, and other acclaimed local poets, as well as the competition winners. With live music and refreshments as well. Tickets can be booked for free via our Eventbrite page: bristolcathedral.eventbrite.com.

IN MEMORIAM Until 17 October, Luke Jerram's new touring artwork, In Memoriam, is being presented on College Green. The installation is a temporary memorial for the public to visit and remember all those we have lost from the COVID-19 pandemic. In Memoriam is also in tribute to all the NHS health and care workers who have been risking their lives during the crisis.

LICENSING OF LAY MINISTERS On Saturday 16 October at 10.30am the Bishop of Bristol will license four new LLMs for Lay Ministry in the Diocese of Bristol. We keep them in our prayers as they prepare for this new ministry.

NEXT WEEK

SOCIAL JUSTICE GROUP The Social Justice Group will meet on Sunday. 17 October (NB change of date) at 11.30am, after the Eucharist, in the Eastern Lady Chapel. Clare Fussell, the Diocesan Environmental Advisor, will be speaking to us around the theme of 'How we are going about trying to tackle our carbon emissions in the Diocese of Bristol' and helping us to think about our own Project 2030 work in the Cathedral and its community.

ANTI-SLAVERY EVENSONG At Evensong on Sunday 17 October we will mark Anti-Slavery Day, and remember all those who have been, and continue to be, victim to slavery.

LOOKING AHEAD

GLOBAL PRAISE On Saturday 23 October, from 10.00am to 12.30pm, come and join us for an interactive workshop exploring intercultural worship lead by the WEC band 'Resonance'. It will include an exploration of the rationale for intercultural worship, and a chance to learn some worship songs from around the world. If you play an instrument, please do bring it along. Tickets can be booked for free via our Eventbrite page: bristolcathedral.eventbrite.com.

CHILDREN'S CHURCH Watch this Space! After a long absence, exciting plans are afoot to restart children's church after Half Term. If you would like to find out more, or get involved, please contact Canon Jonnie Parkin canon.missioner@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

ALL SOULS AND REMEMBRANCE REQUIEMS On Tuesday 2 November the Fitzhardinge Consort will sing Duruflé's Requiem in a Eucharist service for All Souls, and on Remembrance Sunday, 14 November, the Cathedral Choir will sing Fauré's Requiem in a Eucharist for Remembrance. Both services start at 6.00pm, and all are welcome to these services of remembrance.

LUNCHTIME RECITALS We have had many enquiries about when our popular Tuesday lunchtime recitals will return. We are pleased to confirm these will return after half term, with the first recital given on Tuesday 9 November with a recital by Mike Gormley (tenor) and Mark Lee (piano). Full details will be on our website and social media channels soon.

CAROLS BY CANDLELIGHT RETURNS The Cathedral's premier Christmas concert is back! On Friday 17 and Saturday 18 December, at 7.30pm, join the Cathedral Choir, together with John Telfer (BBC's The Archers) for an evening of Christmas anthems, seasonal readings, and a chance for audience participation in some festive favourites. Reserved seating tickets are £7-£20 and are available via the Cathedral's Eventbrite page. (There are no additional Eventbrite fees.)

GENERAL

REQUEST FOR OLD T-SHIRTS If you have any old T-shirts that you are disposing of, please could you donate them to the Vergers: they make excellent cloths for polishing!

CHAIRS Many have asked about having chairs with arms. These are on order. If you would like to contribute towards the cost, we would be very grateful. Donations can be sent to the usual bank details, with a reference of "armchairs". Sortcode: 56-00-05, Acct No: 0001 1355. Thank you.

MESSAGE FROM LYDIA MOREY "Thank you very much to everyone for your kind words, gifts, thoughts and prayers as I have left the Cathedral and started in my new role. I take many happy memories and useful experiences with me. I am settling down into my new patch and enjoying getting to know the congregations and parishes."
