

Third Sunday of Epiphany

23 January 2022

WELCOME TO BRISTOL CATHEDRAL

Whether this is your first time visiting the Cathedral, or whether you are a regular worshipper here, you are most welcome.

If you would prefer to remain spatially distanced and masked, please make your way to the North Transept, where a space has been retained. A steward or welcomer can help you find this area if you are unsure where to go.

If you are new to the Cathedral, please do say hello over a cup of coffee after the service. If you are here with young children you might be interested in finding out more about our Children's Church, BriCKs (Bristol Cathedral Kids) which runs during term-time. Speak to a steward to find out more.

The 10.00am Eucharist service can be followed in the main green booklet.

This week's services can be found on the Services + Music List on our website.

COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

READING

1 Corinthians 12.12-31a

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot were to say, 'Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear were to say, 'Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body', that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you', nor again the head to the feet, 'I have no need of you.' On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honourable we clothe with greater honour, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honour to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together with it.

Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia (rpt all). Christ was revealed in flesh, proclaimed among the nations and believed in throughout the world.

Alleluia.

GOSPEL

Luke 4.14-21

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Hear the ✠ Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.' And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

COMMUNION MOTET

Ave verum corpus W. A. Mozart 1756-91

Ave verum Corpus natum de Maria Virgine, vere passum immolatum in cruce pro homine. Cujus latus perforatum unda fluxit et sanguine. Esto nobis praegustatum in mortis examine.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who truly suffered upon the cross for mankind: from whose pierced side there came forth water and blood; give us now, and at the time of our death, yourself to be our food.

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNION

If it is your custom to receive Communion in your own church, you are welcome to receive the sacrament at this celebration, whatever denomination you are.

We receive in one kind.

Others may wish to receive a blessing, and you should bring this booklet in your hands to indicate this.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

NEWS +NOTES BRISTOL-CATHEDRAL.CO.UK

TODAY

LIVING IN LOVE AND FAITH It is not too late to sign up to participate. Please email the Dean for further information: dean@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

THIS WEEK

LUNCHTIME RECITAL The Lunchtime Recital Series continues on Tuesday 25 January, at 1.15pm, with a recital by musicians from Bristol Cathedral Choir School. Admission is free and all are welcome.

COMING SOON

CANDLEMAS PROCESSION AND CHORAL EUCHARIST On Wednesday 2 February at 6.00pm the Church celebrates Candlemas, a feast that recalls the presentation of Jesus in the Temple and the purification of Mary. We hear of the faith of Simeon and Anna who for many years waited patiently in the Temple for the Messiah, and how they recognized Jesus as their Lord. Candlemas is a pivotal day in the Church's year, where we look back with joy at his coming and turn forward to the approaching days of his passion. The service begins in the Eastern Lady Chapel with an atmospheric candlelit procession.

CHORISTER FOR THE DAY Do you have or know someone with a child in Year 4 with a love of singing? Perhaps they might like to join the Cathedral Choir? On Saturday 12 February, from 11.00am to 4.30pm, come to Bristol Cathedral to see what it is like to be a Chorister for the day. For more information or an application form, please email Tim Pople tim.pople@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU LUNCHES Canon Nicola, in her new role as Canon Pastor would like to chat with members of the Cathedral congregations over a relaxed lunch, with more time to talk than there usually is in the porch or over coffee! Meet in the Café or garden and the Cathedral will pay for lunch, with those attending asked if possible to make a donation to Christian Aid. The lunches will take place at 1.00pm on Thursdays in March and numbers will be limited at each lunch to four people. If you would like to sign up please contact Sarah Morris: sarah.morris@bristol-cathedral.co.uk. 0117 946 8185

LOOKING AHEAD

WALSINGHAM A Cathedral Pilgrimage to Walsingham has been provisionally booked for four nights: 13-16 June 2022. The cost of half-board accommodation will be £256. Travel is arranged by pilgrims themselves but for those who wish to journey by train, travel to Kings Lynn and then on to Walsingham by taxi. The pilgrimage will aim to involve a day each at Wells-next-the-Sea and Sandringham, with time exploring Walsingham, the Norfolk countryside, participating in the Shrine services, and of course catch up with Glynn Usher in his new role! Please let Nicola know before 20 February if you would like to join this pilgrimage. canon.precentor@bristol-cathedral.co.uk 0117 946 8183.

GENERAL

MONDAY MORNING EUCHARIST Each Monday in term time there will be a Eucharist at 8.45am in the Berkeley Chapel. All are very welcome to join.
