From the Minor Canon for Worship

Dear Parent / Carer,

Thank you for your interest in the Cathedral Choir and in your child's becoming a Probationary Chorister.

Being a chorister is an extraordinary experience, and our choristers have the joy and privilege of being at the very heart of the worshipping life of Bristol Cathedral, sustaining a pattern of worship that spans nearly nine hundred years and enabling those who attend our services to encounter God through their singing.

Throughout their time with us, our choristers are supported and nurtured so that they flourish and grow as individuals, as members of a talented and gifted team, as members of our Cathedral family, and as musicians – reaching a high standard of musicianship and learning some wonderful music along the way. The unique musical education and experience gained by being a member of the choir provides a firm foundation for developing teamwork skills, confidence, discipline, and motivation – qualities that will stand them in good stead for the rest of their life. We look forward to welcoming you and your family as important members of the Cathedral community.

The experience of being a chorister is one that will remain with your child for the rest of their life and can lead to a music-associated career. If, having read through this Prospectus, you consider that this commitment is a realistic possibility both for yourself and your child, please do get in touch with us. You should find all the information you need within this Prospectus.

Once again, we thank you for your interest.

The Revd Dr Kathryn Goldsmith
Minor Canon for Worship & Liturgy

Becoming a Chorister

Becoming a chorister in Bristol Cathedral Choir will change your child's life.

As a chorister, your child will become part of a musical family, learning routine, teamwork, structure, discipline, and musicianship, playing a part in a story which has been told here in Bristol Cathedral for hundreds of years.

Becoming a chorister is, naturally, a significant commitment. It will demand a lot of your child's time and energy, and your own as well as you support them on this journey.

They will form friendships with children across other year groups, and you will form often close and lasting friendships with other chorister parents.

Becoming a chorister impacts life beyond your child's time in the choir. Almost all our choristers continue singing after they leave the choir, and many have gone on to make a career in music.

This prospectus will tell you everything you need to know about the choir and the Cathedral in order to help you make the right decision for your child and for yourself.

What does “being a chorister” mean?

Choristers sing.

Those two words contain in their simplicity a world bursting with opportunity, diversity, excitement, and depth. From learning to read music, singing with others who share the passion for singing, exploring music they would rarely come across otherwise, being part of something bigger and older than they can imagine, choristers enjoy all the untold benefits that a musical education brings.

“I love being a chorister.”

Maddy, Year 8 chorister

Choristers sing almost every day, during term-time, with a regular timetable of commitments, as well as special events and opportunities to sing on important days like Easter Day and Christmas Day. Your child is not expected to be a Christian, but you do need to be sympathetic to the Christian faith. (Many choristers do choose to be baptized and confirmed, but that is an individual choice.) Your child will learn, grow, mentor, and live life as a chorister, as thousands have for centuries.

But, first and foremost, choristers sing.

What does being a chorister involve?

The first step in becoming a chorister has already been made: you're reading this Prospectus, interested in what chorister life can bring you and your child.

The next step is to attend a Voice Trial. These are held in the Spring when your child is in Year 4. They involve preparing a short song for your child to sing, and some vocal and musical exercises. It lasts around 25 minutes. You will be informed whether your child has been successful by the end of the school year, in order to prepare to join the choir as a Probationary Chorister the following September.

Your child will then become a Probationary Chorister – or as they are usually called a “prob” – during Years 5 and 6. They learn the ropes, are mentored by a senior chorister, and gain confidence in singing.

In Year 7 your child will join Bristol Cathedral Choir School by merit of being in the Cathedral Choir. Just eight places are set aside for probationers, and having a guaranteed place at the choir school is one of the great privileges of joining the Cathedral Choir.

At the start of Year 7 your child will be admitted as a full chorister in the Cathedral Choir. Choristers are strongly encouraged to learn an instrument, in addition to singing, and the cost for this tuition is paid through the generosity of the Choral Foundation for the duration of their time in the choir.

They will start to attend morning rehearsals and begin to find their place in the choir, with additional responsibilities like singing solos and, as they progress to Year 8 and 9, looking after the younger probationers as they were once looked after.

All choristers are expected to continue in the Cathedral Choir until the end of Year 9, with the option to continue into Year 10. Choristerships are offered on the understanding that the child is committed to the choir for their full term of service.

The choir depends on this commitment, first to bring the child up to the level of being able to contribute effectively (as a probationer), and then to benefit from this contribution (as a chorister). The worst of all scenarios is to have invested time and money in a chorister's training and for neither them nor the choir to benefit from that investment.

During their time in the choir your child will not be expected to reach any absolute level of achievement but, by hard work and enthusiasm, they are expected to make the very best of their training and talents. The secret to their success lies in children discovering that they can achieve more than they (and indeed you!) imagine possible.

In order to maintain the high standard required of the Cathedral Choir, the Dean and Chapter expect every child to attend on time all practices and services. Permission to be absent may be requested in exceptional circumstances, such as a close family wedding or funeral, or for certain religious observances.

A chorister place in Bristol Cathedral Choir means that other extra-curricular activities need to be carefully fitted around choir commitments. We encourage our Choristers to be well-rounded individuals, with the understanding that the Cathedral Choir commitment comes first.

Rare clashes with school events are discussed between the Master of the Choristers and the Head of Bristol Cathedral Choir School, and avoided whenever possible. However, there will inevitably be occasions when choristers are unable to take part in an activity.

SPECIAL EVENTS

On top of the usual weekly timetable, choristers are sometimes required to sing at special services and concerts in the Cathedral. These events are an exciting opportunity for the choir to sing music outside their usual repertoire, often to a larger congregation or audience. For example: appearing live on BBC One on Christmas Day 2016, recording a CD in May 2017, and singing in front of The King and Queen Consort (The Prince of Wales and Duchess of Cornwall at the time) at the commissioning of the aircraft carrier HMS Prince of Wales in December 2019. Choristers may also be asked to sing at weddings and funerals in the Cathedral: as a professional musician, your child will be paid for these events.

FOREIGN TOUR

Your child may have the opportunity to tour abroad. The choir aims to undertake a foreign tour every other year; in the summer of 2022 the choir toured Portugal, and in 2018 the choir visited Belgium and the Netherlands. Foreign tours are a brilliant way for our choir to see how things are done in churches and cathedrals across the globe, and to experience singing in some of the most beautiful buildings imaginable. They are always exciting events and are paid for in part by choir fundraising.

PASTORAL CARE & SAFEGUARDING

The Cathedral is committed to the safeguarding, flourishing and wellbeing of all those in our care. For us this is not just about keeping your child safe from harm when they are with us, but about providing a positive, nurturing environment that promotes their wellbeing and enables them to flourish as whole people.

When your child is in our care we take full responsibility for their safety and wellbeing. To ensure the pastoral care we provide is as effective as possible it is important that we work in close partnership with our families. When your child becomes a chorister we commit to working with you, and to you working with us. Effective and timely communication is key to this partnership and helps to ensure the wellbeing of your child. The Master of the Choristers and the Chorister Tutor are always on hand to talk with and listen to parents.

AFTER LEAVING THE CHOIR

When their commitment to the Cathedral Choir has finished, many of our choristers join the Cathedral Consort, a choir led by Paul Walton, for 11-19 year olds. The Consort sing one Sunday a month, alongside big Cathedral services at Christmas and Easter and occasional services and concerts around Bristol. This choir is an opportunity for teenagers to continue to sing choral music at a high level, and to continue the social life they will have developed during their time in the Cathedral Choir. Many choristers go on to take Choral Scholarships at prestigious universities.

Minor Canon Precentor, St Albans and former Bristol Cathedral Chorister*

MUSIC FORUM

Every term a parent of one of the Head Choristers, a Probationer parent, and a Consort member, get together with the music staff at a Music Forum to discuss any ongoing issues or queries for open discussion. This is a chance for all involved to work together to improve the Choristers' experience in the choir.

What's next?

Having read this Prospectus, talk to your child about the commitment and expectations, and decide whether you would like to take the next step.

If you would like any further information don't hesitate to contact the Music & Liturgy Officer or the Chorister Tutor. Both have personal experience of chorister life: Tim is a former chorister and current Lay Clerk; Sarah is the mother of two former choristers.

If you would like to arrange a voice trial, please complete an Application Form, which is available from Tim Popple.

Who's who at the Cathedral?

The people you and your child will meet if your child becomes a chorister:

The Revd Dr Kathryn Goldsmith

*Minor Canon
for Worship & Liturgy*

Kathryn is primarily responsible for worship and liturgy in the Cathedral. She also has the over-arching responsibility for the Cathedral Choir and the musicians.

Mark Lee

Master of the Choristers & Organist

Mark is responsible for the training, direction, and management of the Cathedral's music. He will be the main point of contact for Probationers and Choristers.

mark.lee@bristol-cathedral.co.uk

Paul Walton

Assistant Organist

Paul accompanies and assists in the training of the Cathedral Choir. Paul also directs the Cathedral Consort, the Cathedral's youth choir which takes children aged 11-19.

Tim Popple

Music & Liturgy Officer

Tim is responsible for the administration of the music and liturgy within the Cathedral. He creates the Choir Diary, and will be your main point of contact for all administrative enquiries.

tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk

Sarah Jenkinson

*Safeguarding & Pastoral Officer
(inc. Chorister Tutor)*

Sarah is a former teacher at Bristol Cathedral Choir School. She has a pastoral role in the choir, which involves liaising with families, safeguarding, first aid, supporting the choristers and probationers, and other more practical duties. She attends all evening and weekend rehearsals and services, and shares supervision of weekday morning rehearsals with members of BCCS staff. Sarah accompanies the choristers on trips and tours.
