From the Dean

The month of May sees us celebrating a number of festivals in quick succession. We complete the Easter Season and our celebration of the Resurrection with the Feast of the Ascension, when we remember Christ enthroned at the right hand of God. At Ascensiontide we are given a vision of the divinity of Christ which moves us to join our praises with those of the company of heaven, the saints and the angels. Yet, we never forget that this is Jesus who will judge us with compassion and mercy, because the divinity which he has once again assumed in Heaven, was cast aside so that he could live among us and die for us.

At Pentecost we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit, sometimes thought of as the Birthday of the Church, when the disciples are empowered to preach the gospel in such a compelling way that people of every nation and language are able to catch the good news. Through the Holy Spirit the church spread rapidly through the preaching of Jesus' followers and eventually reached the far off Roman outpost of Britain by the third century. Although it would be another 300 years before Britain became a predominantly Christian country, we can trace our heritage back to the early church reflecting that without the coming of the Holy Spirit followers of Jesus might have remained an obscure Jewish sect.

Trinity Sunday is the Feast of Title of the Cathedral, which has been dedicated to the Holy and Undivided Trinity since 1542. It is a day when we thank God especially for our Cathedral community, for those who contribute to all aspects of our life through their work or volunteering, their generosity and their gifts and skills.

In medieval times, the Feast of Corpus Christi (the Body of Christ) was one of the most colourful festival days of the year. We know that in Bristol the feast was celebrated with processions around the city which included pageants enacted by the different guilds, probably similar in style to those we are familiar with from the Mystery Plays of Chester and York. A particular feature of the Bristol pageants was that, due to the poor state of the streets and sewers, the pageants could not be carried around on wheeled carts, but were moved from place to place by being dragged on sleds. A major part of the procession would have been the carrying of the consecrated host, the bread of the Eucharist – the body of Christ – through the streets. Sadly, there are no processions or pageants for the feast in Bristol this year, but there is a Choral Eucharist here at 6.00pm to enjoy on Thursday 30 May.

Work on the restoration of our organ continues and there is a fascinating exhibition now in the quire explaining what is being done and demonstrating how an organ is constructed and played. Do take a look!

Bristol Cathedral

The original foundation on this site was an abbey established in 1140. It was built just outside the original walls of Bristol on high ground overlooking the river. The new monastery was dedicated to St Augustine of Canterbury, but followed the rule of Augustine of Hippo, a Bishop from North Africa who established communities in which priests lived an ordered life, but one that was not detached from the needs of local people.

The architecture of the building was initially characterised by a particularly elaborate variety of the Romanesque style, with rounded arches and rich carvings that can still be seen in the Chapter House. However, between the 13th and early 16th centuries a sequence of rebuilding projects transformed the church into a Gothic one, with its familiar pointed arches. The most important of these was the unique and beautiful ‘hall church’ east end begun in 1298.

The nave of the church was in the middle of being rebuilt just when Henry VIII dissolved the country’s monasteries and confiscated their assets. However, Bristol was an important place – England’s second city – and in 1542 the truncated building, its building works abandoned, was designated the Cathedral of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol.

The people of Bristol themselves funded the rebuilding of the nave, from 1868. Like many other institutions in Bristol, these donations would have been substantially built on the legacy of trade in sugar, tobacco and cotton, which until earlier in the century had depended on the labour of enslaved Africans. We acknowledge and repent the human impact of this legacy, together with the experience of racism that flows from it, and are working to address it.

Monuments to the aristocrats and traders of Bristol are all around you, but also notice the stained-glass windows commemorating the sacrifice of ordinary volunteers during the Second World War, and remember the many unnamed artisans and craftspeople who shaped this building, and ordinary citizens buried in its vaults.

Cathedrals are places of prayer and welcome for everyone, and we seek to be a place of welcome for all, to be here for the people of Bristol and beyond.

Bristol Cathedral Choir

Bristol Cathedral Choir lies at the heart of the worshipping life of the Cathedral, sustaining a pattern of worship that reaches back nearly nine hundred years. Our choristers have the joy and privilege of enabling people to worship God through music and singing.

A choir has been singing on the site of the Cathedral since the Augustinian monastery was founded in 1140.

When the church formally became Bristol Cathedral in 1542 its statutes required that provision be made for the development and maintenance of the choir, whose role was to sing the praises of God.

The passing of the centuries has modified but not destroyed the pattern. The choir consists of around 28 choristers, all of whom are educated at Bristol Cathedral Choir School, 16 probationers, educated at Primary Schools across Bristol and the surrounding area, four university-age Choral Scholars, and six professional Lay Clerks.

Each year the Cathedral recruits four boys and four girls who are currently in Year 4 to become probationers when they reach Year 5.

If you are interested in finding out more about your child becoming a chorister, please contact the Music & Liturgy Officer, Tim Popple: tim.popple@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

Services in Bristol Cathedral

Communion

If it is your custom to receive communion in your own church, you are welcome to receive here, whatever your denomination. You may choose not to receive wine from the common cup, recognising that some people are still vulnerable. For the safety of all please do not intinct (dip the bread/host) into the chalice.

ABENDLIED

Bleib' bei uns,
denn es will Abend werden;
und der Tag hat sich geneiget.

*Stay with us,
because it is almost evening;
and the day is nearly over.*

Luke 24.29

SALVATOR MUNDI, salva nos, qui per crucem et sanguinem
redemisti nos:
auxiliare nobis te deprecamur, Deus noster.

*Saviour of the world, save us,
who by the cross and the blood
have redeemed us:
help us, we beseech you, our God.*

Antiphon at Good Friday Liturgy

COELOS ASCENDIT HODIE Alleluia!

Jesus Christus Rex gloriae:
sedet ad Patris dexteram;
gubernat caelum et terram.

*Today ascends to heaven Alleluia!
Jesus Christ the King of glory:
he is seated at the right hand of the Father;
he governs heaven and earth.*

Iam finem habent omnia
patris Davidis carmina.
Iam Dominus cum Domino
sedet in Dei solio.

*Now fulfilled are all
the songs of our forefather David.
Now the Lord with the Lord
is seated on God's throne.*

In hoc triumpho maximo
benedicamus Domino:
laudatur Sancta Trinitas.
Deo dicamus gratias. Alleluia! Amen.

*In this great triumph
let us bless the Lord:
let the Holy Trinity be praised.
Let us give thanks to God. Alleluia! Amen.*

Anon.

VIRI GALILEI, quid admiramini aspicientes in caelum? Alleluia!
Quemadmodum vidistis eum ascendentem in caelum, ita veniet. Alleluia!

*Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? Alleluia!
He will come in the same way
as you saw him go into heaven. Alleluia!*

Omnes gentes plaudite manibus:
jubilate Deo in voce exsultationis.

*Clap your hands, all you peoples:
O sing to God with shouts of joy.*

Gloria Patri et Filio
et Spiritui Sancto,
sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper
et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

*Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.*

Acts 1.11, Psalm 47.1
