BRISTOL CATHEDRAL

The
LORD MAYOR'S CHAPEL

Here with you, yesterday,
today,
and tomorrow

From the Dean acting as Canon for Worship

November brings the “Kingdom Season” in which we have a dual liturgical focus on the kingdoms of this world, and the Heavenly Kingdom where Christ is King. Red hangings and vestments speak of martyrdom and loss, as well as echoing the red poppies of Flanders that many of us will be wearing in the run up to Remembrance Sunday.

The civic and secular world is closely aligned to the church in the early part of November as we remember All Saints and All Souls, the latter with a Requiem Eucharist featuring the Fauré Requiem and sung by the choir of St Paul’s Clifton, swiftly followed by Remembrance Sunday on which our own choir will be singing the Duruflé Requiem at 3.30pm.

As Advent has increasingly become a season in which the world anticipates Christmas, November is a time for Christians to reflect and repent in the light of war, past and present, and loss. The feast of Christ the King, instigated by the church in the light of the rise of dictatorships in the 1930s in Europe, invites us to cast a critical eye over our political rulers and to be reminded that we have only one true ruler, whose rule is one of justice, love and servanthood.

On Advent Sunday itself, we travel the journey from darkness to light as we anticipate the birth of the coming Saviour, as King and Judge. The Advent Procession, at 6pm on Sunday 29 November, is one of the highlights of the liturgical year, as ancient themes and solemn music echo around the candle-lit cathedral and we hear the words of the Old Testament prophets looking forward to the coming Messiah, Emmanuel, God among us.

Services

Bible Translation

The Cathedral uses the NRSV Anglicised Edition translation of the bible for all services except BCP Holy Communion on Sundays. Reading selections are taken from the Common Worship Lectionary, with Evensong readings taken from the Pillar Lectionary. At the Lord Mayor's Chapel, the King James Version is used, and readings are taken from the BCP readings of the day.

Choir

Unless otherwise specified, all choral services are sung by the Cathedral Choir or, at the Lord Mayor's Chapel, the chapel choir.

Communion

If it is your custom to receive communion in your own church, you are welcome to receive here, whatever your denomination. You may choose not to receive wine from the common cup, recognising that some people are still vulnerable. For the safety of all please do not intinct (dip the bread/host) into the chalice.

Feast Days Key

On each day there is an indication of whether it is a day of significance.

The different significances are indicated as follows:

- Feria (no commemoration or otherwise)
- Commemoration
- Lesser Festival
- Festival
- PRINCIPAL FEAST

For Festivals and Principal Feasts, (and the evening service the day before) the altar colours will reflect the occasion, and Festal Responses are said or sung at the close of the evening service.

Hymns

Hymns are taken from the New English Hymnal, except where it indicates "HPP", which refers to the blue Hymns for Prayer + Praise often used at Sunday Evensong.

Incense

On some feast days, incense is used during the service. This is indicated by the † symbol.

Live-Streaming

Weekday Morning Prayer is live streamed on our social media channels.

Photography and Recording

No photography or recording of any other kind may take place during services, concerts, or rehearsals without the express permission of the Chapter.

Psalms

The traditional BCP Coverdale translation is used at Evening Prayer and Evensong. Common Worship translation is used at all other services. The congregation sit for the psalms, standing for “Glory be to the Father...” at the end of the last psalm.

Service Length

Said Morning Prayer lasts approximately 15 minutes.

Said Lunchtime Eucharist lasts approximately 30 minutes.

Evensong lasts around 40 minutes; Evening Prayer around 20 minutes.

BCP Communion lasts around 40 minutes.

The Eucharist on a Sunday lasts around one hour.

On a Sunday, Evensong lasts around one hour, incorporating a sermon.

Translations of Anthems not in English

Translations of weekday anthems sung in languages other than English can be found at the back of this booklet.

Service Locations

On Sundays, the 8.00am BCP Holy Communion is held at the High Altar, and the 10.00am Eucharist in the Nave.

Morning Prayer is held every day in the Newton Chapel.

Evensong or Evening Prayer is held in the Nave, except Evening Prayer on Saturdays, which is held in the Berkeley Chapel.

Service locations may change at short notice: please speak to a verger or one of the welcome team to confirm the location of the day's services.

About the Cathedral Choir

Bristol Cathedral Choir lies at the heart of the worshipping life of the Cathedral, sustaining a pattern of worship that reaches back nearly nine hundred years. Our choristers have the joy and privilege of enabling people to worship God through music and singing. A choir has been singing on the site of the Cathedral since the Augustinian monastery was founded in 1140. When the church formally became Bristol Cathedral in 1542 its statutes required that provision be made for the development and maintenance of the choir, whose role was to sing the praises of God. The passing of the centuries has modified but not destroyed the pattern. The choir consists of around 28 choristers, all of whom are educated at Bristol Cathedral Choir School, 16 probationers, educated at Primary Schools across Bristol and the surrounding area, four university-age Choral Scholars, and six professional Lay Clerks. Each year the Cathedral recruits four boys and four girls who are currently in Year 4 to become probationers when they reach Year 5. If you are interested in finding out more about your child becoming a chorister, please contact the Music Department: music@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

About us

The original foundation of Bristol Cathedral was an abbey established in 1140. It was built just outside the original walls of Bristol on high ground overlooking the river. The new monastery was dedicated to St Augustine of Canterbury, but followed the rule of Augustine of Hippo, a Bishop from North Africa who established communities in which priests lived an ordered life, but one that was not detached from the needs of local people.

The architecture of the building was initially characterised by a particularly elaborate variety of the Romanesque style, with rounded arches and rich carvings that can still be seen in the Chapter House. However, between the 13th and early 16th centuries a sequence of rebuilding projects transformed the church into a Gothic one, with its familiar pointed arches. The most important of these was the unique and beautiful 'hall church' east end begun in 1298.

The nave of the church was in the middle of being rebuilt just when Henry VIII dissolved the country's monasteries and confiscated their assets. However, Bristol was an important place – England's second city – and in 1542 the truncated building, its building works abandoned, was designated the Cathedral of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol.

The people of Bristol themselves funded the rebuilding of the nave, from 1868. Like many other institutions in Bristol, these donations would have been substantially built on the legacy of trade in sugar, tobacco and cotton, which until earlier in the century had depended on the labour of enslaved Africans. We acknowledge and repent the human impact of this legacy, together with the experience of racism that flows from it, and are working to address it.

Monuments to the aristocrats and traders of Bristol are all around you, but also notice the stained-glass windows commemorating the sacrifice of ordinary volunteers during the Second World War, and remember the many unnamed artisans and craftspeople who shaped this building, and ordinary citizens buried in its vaults.

Cathedrals are places of prayer and welcome for everyone, and we seek to be a place of welcome for all, to be here for the people of Bristol and beyond.

THE LORD MAYOR'S CHAPEL dates back to 1220 initially built as part of a hospital founded by Maurice and Henry de Gaunt, grandsons of Robert Fitzharding, founder of the Abbey of St Augustine (which would later become Bristol Cathedral). At the dissolution of the monasteries in 1541, the Chapel was purchased by the Mayor of Bristol, at which point it became the Lord Mayor's Chapel. It has remained in the ownership of the City Council (and its predecessors) ever since, and since April 2023 has been in the care of Bristol Cathedral.

Translations of Anthems

Tuesday 3 November

Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes mei

Henry Purcell 1659-95

Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes mei:
quam multi insurgunt contra me!
Quam multi dicunt de anima mea:
'non est ulla salus isti in Deo plane.'
At tu, Jehova, clypeus es circa me:
gloria mea, et extollens caput meum.
Voce mea ad Jehovam clamanti:
respondit mihi e monte sanctitatis suae maxime;
ego cubui et dormivi:
ego expergefeci me,
quia Jehova sustentat me.
Non timebo a myriadibus populi:
quas circum disposuerint metatores contra me.

*Jehova, how many are my adversaries:
many are they who rise up against me!
Many are they who say to my soul:
'There is no help for you in your God.'
But you, Jehova, are a shield about me:
my glory, and the lifter up of my head.
When I cry aloud to Jehova with my voice:
he answers me from his holy hill;
I have lain down and slept:
and have arisen again,
because Jehova sustains me.
I will not be afraid of hordes of the peoples:
that have set themselves against me all around.*

Surge, Jehova; fac salvum me, Deus mi:
qui percussisti omnes
inimicos meos maxillam, dentes improborum confregisti.

Rise up, O Jehova; and deliver me, O my God: for you struck all my enemies on the cheek and have broken the teeth of the wicked.

Jehova est salus:
super populum tuum
sit benedictio tua maxime!

Salvation belongs to Jehova: may your blessing be greatly upon your people.

Sicut cervus

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina c.1525-94

Sicut cervus
desiderat ad fontes aquarum:
ita desiderat anima mea ad te Deus.

*Like as the hart
desireth the waterbrooks:
so longeth my soul after thee, O God.*

Wednesday 11 November

O mysterium inefabile,

O mysterium inefabile,
O caritatis sacramentum admirabile,
O bonitatis prodigium,
O pietatis miraculum.
Hic est panis vita vitæ,
Hic est cibus animæ.
Ibi caro confert semen gratiæ,
Ibi sanguis donat pignus gloriæ.
O amor, O pietas,
O epularum jucunditas,
O convivarum felicitas.

Jean François Lalouette 1651 - 1728

*O ineffable mystery,
O wonderful sacrament of charity,
O wonder of goodness,
O miracle of mercy.
Here is the bread of life
Here is food for the soul.
There the flesh contributes the seed of grace,
There the blood gives a pledge of glory.
O love, O mercy,
O the delight of feasts,
O the happiness of the guests.*

In pace

In pace in idipsum,
dormiam et requiescam.
Si dederō somnum oculis meis et palpebris meis dormitationem
dormiam et requiescam.
Gloria Patri et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto.

John Blitheman c.1525 – 1591

*In peace and into the same
I shall sleep and rest.
If I give slumber to my eyes and to my eyelids drowsiness,
I shall sleep and rest.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit.*

Wednesday 18 November

Lux Aeterna

Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine:
cum sanctis tuis in aeternum, quia pius es.
Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Nadia Boulanger 1887 - 1979 trans. David Briggs

*May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord, with your saints forever, for you are merciful.
Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.*

Thursday 19 November

Ubi Caritas

Ubi caritas et amor,
Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exsultemus et in ipso jucundemur.
Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus
nos sincero.
Amen.

Ola Gjeilo b. 1978
Wherever charity and love are to be found,
God is there.
The love of Christ has brought us together as one.
Let us rejoice and be glad in him.
Let us fear and love the living God;
and let us love one another with sincerity in our heart.
Amen.

Dum aurora finem daret

Dum aurora finem daret,
Caecilia exclamavit dicens:
Eia, milites Christi, abjicite opera tenebrarum et induimini arma lucis.

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina c.1525-94
As dawn was fading into day,
Cecilia cried:
'Arise, soldiers of Christ,
Cast away the works of darkness
And put on the armour of light'.

Last responsory from the Matins for St. Cecilia

Friday 4 December

Audivi vocem de coelo

Audivi vocem de coelo venientem:
oleum recondite in vasis vestris,

Media nocte clamor factus est:
ecce sponsus venit.

Thomas Tallis c.1505-85
I heard a voice from heaven:
take oil in your vessels
while the bridegroom is coming.
At midnight a cry was made:
behold the bridegroom comes.

Choral Evensong at Bristol Cathedral

Choral Evensong is sung nearly every day in Bristol Cathedral.

Evensong is a short 35-40 minute service in which most of the words and music is offered by the choir, allowing those present to be simply carried in prayer and song and offer back to God with thanksgiving the day he has given to us.

Evensong is free to attend, and open to all.
We would be delighted to have you with us.

5.15pm Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday
3.30pm Sunday
