BRISTOL CATHEDRAL

The
LORD MAYOR'S CHAPEL

Here with you, yesterday,
today,
and tomorrow

From the Dean acting as Canon for Worship

We complete the Season of Creation by celebrating the Feast of St Francis on 4th October. St Francis opened the eyes of his brothers and sisters to their dependence on, and solidarity with, the whole of the created order, so it is extremely fitting to be celebrating his feast on the last Sunday of the Season of Creation. I am delighted that we shall be welcoming Rev Dr Harriet Harries, Principal of Ripon College Cuddesdon, as our preacher at the 10am Eucharist.

October gives us a short period of “ordinary time” before we enter the Kingdom Season in November. It is an important period of learning and consolidation for our choirs, ending in a well-deserved break at half term - when Evensong will be replaced by Evening Prayer.

On Tuesday 6th October at 5.30pm the Cathedral will be filled for our service to mark the beginning of the Legal Year. On this occasion we welcome those involved in all aspects of law to rededicate themselves in the service of justice. The High Sheriff will be focussing on the importance of social justice and there will be contributions from Preludes, a Bristol children’s choir.

Our own children’s choir, Songbirds, will be singing at Evensong on Monday 19th October. Do come and support them!

Finally, do note our regular recitals which take place most Tuesday lunchtimes. We are particularly featuring our newly restored organ at the moment, with many superb visiting organists enjoying playing this “Rolls Royce” of instruments.

The Very Revd Dr Mandy Ford
Acting as Canon for Worship

Services

Bible Translation

The Cathedral uses the NRSV Anglicised Edition translation of the bible for all services except BCP Holy Communion on Sundays. Reading selections are taken from the Common Worship Lectionary, with Evensong readings taken from the Pillar Lectionary. At the Lord Mayor's Chapel, the King James Version is used, and readings are taken from the BCP readings of the day.

Choir

Unless otherwise specified, all choral services are sung by the Cathedral Choir or, at the Lord Mayor's Chapel, the chapel choir.

Communion

If it is your custom to receive communion in your own church, you are welcome to receive here, whatever your denomination. You may choose not to receive wine from the common cup, recognising that some people are still vulnerable. For the safety of all please do not intinct (dip the bread/host) into the chalice.

Feast Days Key

On each day there is an indication of whether it is a day of significance.

The different significances are indicated as follows:

- Feria (no commemoration or otherwise)
- Commemoration
- Lesser Festival
- Festival
- PRINCIPAL FEAST

For Festivals and Principal Feasts, (and the evening service the day before) the altar colours will reflect the occasion, and Festal Responses are said or sung at the close of the evening service.

Hymns

Hymns are taken from the New English Hymnal, except where it indicates "HPP", which refers to the blue Hymns for Prayer + Praise often used at Sunday Evensong.

Incense

On some feast days, incense is used during the service. This is indicated by the † symbol.

Live-Streaming

Weekday Morning Prayer is live streamed on our social media channels.

Photography and Recording

No photography or recording of any other kind may take place during services, concerts, or rehearsals without the express permission of the Chapter.

Psalms

The traditional BCP Coverdale translation is used at Evening Prayer and Evensong. Common Worship translation is used at all other services. The congregation sit for the psalms, standing for “Glory be to the Father...” at the end of the last psalm.

Service Length

Said Morning Prayer lasts approximately 15 minutes.

Said Lunchtime Eucharist lasts approximately 30 minutes.

Evensong lasts around 40 minutes; Evening Prayer around 20 minutes.

BCP Communion lasts around 40 minutes.

The Eucharist on a Sunday lasts around one hour.

On a Sunday, Evensong lasts around one hour, incorporating a sermon.

Translations of Anthems not in English

Translations of weekday anthems sung in languages other than English can be found at the back of this booklet.

Service Locations

On Sundays, the 8.00am BCP Holy Communion is held at the High Altar, and the 10.00am Eucharist in the Nave.

Morning Prayer is held every day in the Newton Chapel.

Evensong or Evening Prayer is held in the Nave, except Evening Prayer on Saturdays, which is held in the Berkeley Chapel.

Service locations may change at short notice: please speak to a verger or one of the welcome team to confirm the location of the day's services.

12.30pm Eucharist Locations
Mon	Eastern Lady Chapel
Tue	Eastern Lady Chapel
Wed	Seafarers' Chapel

About the Cathedral Choir

Bristol Cathedral Choir lies at the heart of the worshipping life of the Cathedral, sustaining a pattern of worship that reaches back nearly nine hundred years. Our choristers have the joy and privilege of enabling people to worship God through music and singing. A choir has been singing on the site of the Cathedral since the Augustinian monastery was founded in 1140. When the church formally became Bristol Cathedral in 1542 its statutes required that provision be made for the development and maintenance of the choir, whose role was to sing the praises of God. The passing of the centuries has modified but not destroyed the pattern. The choir consists of around 28 choristers, all of whom are educated at Bristol Cathedral Choir School, 16 probationers, educated at Primary Schools across Bristol and the surrounding area, four university-age Choral Scholars, and six professional Lay Clerks. Each year the Cathedral recruits four boys and four girls who are currently in Year 4 to become probationers when they reach Year 5. If you are interested in finding out more about your child becoming a chorister, please contact the Music Department: music@bristol-cathedral.co.uk.

About us

The original foundation of Bristol Cathedral was an abbey established in 1140. It was built just outside the original walls of Bristol on high ground overlooking the river. The new monastery was dedicated to St Augustine of Canterbury, but followed the rule of Augustine of Hippo, a Bishop from North Africa who established communities in which priests lived an ordered life, but one that was not detached from the needs of local people.

The architecture of the building was initially characterised by a particularly elaborate variety of the Romanesque style, with rounded arches and rich carvings that can still be seen in the Chapter House. However, between the 13th and early 16th centuries a sequence of rebuilding projects transformed the church into a Gothic one, with its familiar pointed arches. The most important of these was the unique and beautiful ‘hall church’ east end begun in 1298.

The nave of the church was in the middle of being rebuilt just when Henry VIII dissolved the country’s monasteries and confiscated their assets. However, Bristol was an important place – England’s second city – and in 1542 the truncated building, its building works abandoned, was designated the Cathedral of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Bristol.

The people of Bristol themselves funded the rebuilding of the nave, from 1868. Like many other institutions in Bristol, these donations would have been substantially built on the legacy of trade in sugar, tobacco and cotton, which until earlier in the century had depended on the labour of enslaved Africans. We acknowledge and repent the human impact of this legacy, together with the experience of racism that flows from it, and are working to address it.

Monuments to the aristocrats and traders of Bristol are all around you, but also notice the stained-glass windows commemorating the sacrifice of ordinary volunteers during the Second World War, and remember the many unnamed artisans and craftspeople who shaped this building, and ordinary citizens buried in its vaults.

Cathedrals are places of prayer and welcome for everyone, and we seek to be a place of welcome for all, to be here for the people of Bristol and beyond.

THE LORD MAYOR’S CHAPEL dates back to 1220 initially built as part of a hospital founded by Maurice and Henry de Gaunt, grandsons of Robert Fitzharding, founder of the Abbey of St Augustine (which would later become Bristol Cathedral). At the dissolution of the monasteries in 1541, the Chapel was purchased by the Mayor of Bristol, at which point it became the Lord Mayor’s Chapel. It has remained in the ownership of the City Council (and its predecessors) ever since, and since April 2023 has been in the care of Bristol Cathedral.

Uni trinoque Domino
Sit sempiterna gloria,
Qui vitam sine termino
Nobis donet in patria. Amen.

*O saving Victim, opening wide
The gate of heaven to man below;
Our foes press on from every side;
Thine aid supply, thy strength bestow.*

*To Thy great name be endless praise,
Immortal Godhead, One in Three;
O grant us endless length of days
In our true native land with Thee. Amen*

Justorum animae

William Byrd c.1540–1623

Justorum animae in manu Dei sunt, et non tanget illos tormentum mortis.
Visi sunt oculis insipientium mori, illi autem sunt in pace.

*The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and the torment of death shall not touch them.
In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die; but they are in peace.
Wisdom 3: 1-3*

Honestum fecit

Jacob Handl 1550–1591

Honestum fecit illum Dominus, et custodivit eum ab inimicis, et a seductoribus tutavit illum, et dedit illi claritatem aeternam.

The Lord made him honorable, and guarded him from enemies, and protected him from deceivers, and gave him everlasting glory.

Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes mei

Henry Purcell 1659-95

Jehova, quam multi sunt hostes mei:
quam multi insurgunt contra me!

Quam multi dicunt de anima mea:
'non est ulla salus isti in Deo plane.'

At tu, Jehova, clypeus es circa me:
gloria mea, et extollens caput meum.

Voce mea ad Jehovam clamanti:
respondit mihi e monte sanctitatis suae maxime;

ego cubui et dormivi:

ego expergefeci me,

quia Jehova sustentat me.

Non timebo a myriadibus populi:

quas circum disposuerint

metatores contra me.

Surge, Jehova; fac salvum me, Deus mi:

qui percussisti omnes

inimicos meos maxillam, dentes improborum confregisti.

Jehova est salus:

super populum tuum

sit benedictio tua maxime!

Jehova, how many are my adversaries:
many are they who rise up against me!

Many are they who say to my soul:
'There is no help for you in your God.'

But you, Jehova, are a shield about me:
my glory, and the lifter up of my head.

When I cry aloud to Jehova with my voice:
he answers me from his holy hill;

I have lain down and slept:

and have arisen again,

because Jehova sustains me.

I will not be afraid of hordes of the peoples:

that have set themselves against me all around.

Rise up, O Jehova; and deliver me, O my God:

for you struck all my enemies on the cheek

and have broken the teeth of the wicked.

Salvation belongs to Jehova:

may your blessing be greatly upon your people.

Psalm 3

Sicut cervus

Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina c.1525-94

Sicut cervus

Like as the hart

desiderat ad fontes aquarum:

desireth the waterbrooks:

ita desiderat anima mea ad te Deus.

so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

Psalm 42.1

Choral Evensong at Bristol Cathedral

Choral Evensong is sung nearly every day in Bristol Cathedral.

Evensong is a short 35-40 minute service in which most of the words and music is offered by the choir, allowing those present to be simply carried in prayer and song and offer back to God with thanksgiving the day he has given to us.

Evensong is free to attend, and open to all.
We would be delighted to have you with us.

5.15pm Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday
3.30pm Sunday
